Rolf Benirschke, the third most accurate placekicker in NFL history at the time of his retirement, had an illustrious 10-year career with the San Diego Chargers from 1977 to 1986. It was made more remarkable because in his second season, Rolf was struck with ulcerative colitis, a painful and debilitating intestinal illness that required major abdominal surgery the following season, and nearly cost him his life.

Space is limited. RSVP is required by March 6th.
